

Oh, mystery!

Oh, mistero!

Words & music by Marco Maiero

Joyful

mf p

Chil - ly night full of my - ste - ry and joy, cold the wea - ther, cold the Chil - ly night full of my - ste - ry and joy, still the night air still the

mf p

Chil - ly night full of my - ste - ry and joy, cold the wea - ther, cold the Chil - ly night full of my - ste - ry and joy, still the night air still the

mf p

Chil - ly night full of my - ste - ry and joy, cold the wea - ther, cold the Chil - ly night full of my - ste - ry and joy, still the night air still the

mf p

Chil - ly night full of my - ste - ry and joy, cold the wea - ther, cold the Chil - ly night full of my - ste - ry and joy, still the night air still the

mf

wea - ther here an - nounce the day, an - gels sing - ing as if blos - somed from the night air here an - nounce the birth, cry - stal star fair as snow go - ing through the

mf

wea - ther here an - nounce the day, an - gels sing - ing as if blos - somed from the night air here an - nounce the birth, cry - stal star fair as snow go - ing through the

mf

wea - ther here an - nounce day, an - gels sing - ing as if blos - somed from the night air here an - nounce birth, cry - stal star fair as snow go - ing through the

mf

wea - ther here an - nounce day, an - gels sing - ing as if blos - somed from the night air here an - nounce birth, cry - stal star fair as snow go - ing through the un po' tratt. mf a tempo

sky, on the long way on the long way to the man - ger. Cold and ho - ly sky, to - wards Be - thle - hem to show the ho - ly man - ger. Cold and... ger. Cold and...

mf

sky, on the long way on the long way to the man - ger. Cold and ho - ly sky, to - wards Be - thle - hem to show the ho - ly man - ger. Cold and... ger. Cold and...

mf

sky, on the long way on the long way to the man - ger. Cold and ho - ly the sky, to - wards Be - thle - hem to show the ho - ly man - ger. Cold and... ger. Cold and...

mf

sky, on the long way on the long way to the man - ger. Cold and ho - ly, — cold and sky, to - wards Be - thle - hem to show the ho - ly man - ger. Cold and... ger. Cold and...

Oh, mistero!

— the night of lo - ve and hope, — you re - veal the most beau - ti - ful

— the night of lo - ve and hope, — you re - veal the most beau - ti - ful

night, — night of lo - ve and hope, and hope, — you re - veal the most beau - ti - ful ho - ly the night of lo - ve and — hope, and hope, — you re - veal — the most beau - ti - ful gift of all, near St Jo - seph there's Ma - ry and the gift of all, near St Jo - seph there's Ma - ry, near St Jo - seph there's gift of all, near St Jo - seph there's Ma - ry and the gift, the most beau - ti - ful gift all, near St Jo - seph there's ox with ti - ny don - key, see the smile of the new - born lit - tle Je - sus Christ. Cold and Christ.

Ma - ry with ti - ny don - key, see the smile of the new - born lit - tle Je - sus Christ. Cold and Christ.

ox with ti - ny don - key, see the smile of the new - born lit - tle Je - sus Christ. Cold and Christ.

Ma - ry ti - ny don - key, see the smile of the new - born lit - tle Je - sus Christ. Cold and Christ.

Oh, mistero!

Chilly night full of mystery and joy,
Cold the weather, cold the weather here announce the day,
Angels singing as if blossomed from the sky,
On the long way, on the long way to the manger.

Cold and holy the night of love and hope,
You reveal the most beautiful gift of all,
Near St Joseph there's Mary and the ox with tiny donkey, See the smile of the newborn little Jesus Christ.

Chilly night full of mystery and joy,
Still the night air, still the night air here announce the birth,
Crystal star fair as snow going through the sky,
Towards Bethlehem to show the holy manger.

*Singing the mystery of Christmas, the most beautiful mystery.
A lively counterpoint follows the serenity of the refrain which depicts the scene of the Nativity.*